GUIDELINES FOR APPLICANTS

How to avoid delays

Please read this section carefully. We realise that this is an anxious time for applicants and we aim to process your application quickly and efficiently and convey a feedback as soon as possible. To avoid delays we recommend that you follow the procedure below:

- Check that you have filled in all the relevant sections on both sides of the form. If any necessary information is omitted this will slow down or stop the application process (e.g. programme code/title).
- Make sure that your email address is written clearly as we will use this to contact you. Please ensure you provide a valid email account and check your mail regularly.
- Send all supporting documentation with your application form. Include in one package all supporting documents to avoid delays. Make sure that documents bear your name and your date of birth as they appear on your application.
- Attach two endorsed passport photographs to your application before submission.
All documents should be submitted with one duplicate.
- Supply all documentation in English. If your transcript and/or independent translations bearing the stamp/signature of the translator as well as the original documents. We do not accept unofficial translations.
- Central University Admissions Office deals with all application correspondence. Do not send any documents to any other office, or hand them over to any individual for submission on your behalf. All forms must be submitted to the Admissions Office in Miotso, Near Dawhenya, Accra.
Please retain a photocopy of your entire application form.
- when you meet the admissions requirement and pay the appropriate school fees.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Accommodation

The university has accommodation on the Miotso campus and there are a number of private hostels situated just a few minutes away from the campus. On-campus accommodation is limited and places are given on a first come, first serve basis. Prospective students are advised to start making arrangements as soon as practicable.

The university does not have accommodation on the Accra campus. There are however hostels situated a few minutes from the campus.
